House Intelligence Chairman Announces Availability of the Classified Annex to FY'09 Intelligence Authorization

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Rep. Silvestre Reyes, D-Texas., Chairman of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, today announced that members of the House of Representatives can come to the Intelligence Committee to review the classified annex to H.R. 5959, the Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2008.

The annex will be available during regular committee business hours to members only. Personal office staff are requested to call ahead to 5-7690 to schedule a viewing for their member of Congress. Members will be required to fill out the appropriate security paperwork to view the classified documents.
