Reyes comments on President's speech at NSA

Washington, D.C. – Congressman Silvestre Reyes, D-TX, Chairman of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, released the following statement today regarding President Bush's speech at the National Security Agency:

“We strongly agree that intelligence tools should be modern, and that there is no need to obtain individual warrants against targets outside the U.S.,” said Chairman Reyes. “However, the President's bill could allow for broad surveillance on Americans without a warrant – and the Constitution does not allow for that.”
