

IBM QUOTE ON REINTRODUCTION OF THE CYBER INTELLIGENCE SHARING AND PROTECTION ACT

February 13, 2013 – IBM today released the following quote applauding Chairman Rogers and Ranking Member Ruppertsberger on the reintroduction of CISPA legislation:

"The Cyber Intelligence Sharing and Protection Act would greatly improve the government and private sector's ability to mitigate cyber threats by enabling better information sharing. IBM thanks Chairman Rogers and Ranking Member Ruppertsberger for their work on this critical, bipartisan legislation that will help promote security and reliability while safeguarding consumers' rights and information."

- Christopher Padilla, VP, IBM Governmental Programs
