The Honorable Mike Rogers
U.S. House of Representatives
324 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Chairman Rogers,

The Boeing Company supports the Cyber Intelligence Sharing and Protection Act (H.R. 3523) and appreciates the Committee's work on this important endeavor. Removing barriers to cyber intelligence sharing is vital to our national defense. H.R. 3523 would bolster the ability of the Intelligence Community and the private sector to share information and resources in the fight to protect our national security and economy from the burgeoning array of cyber threats to our critical infrastructure.

This legislation has been carefully crafted to allow the government and private enterprise to protect citizens and businesses from this twenty-first century threat, while appropriately guarding civil liberties.

Sincerely,
